BYU Hawai‘i Curriculum Proposal
Section 1

Proposal Description (Balance Sheet)

Executive Summary

We, the faculty of The Willes Center for International Entrepreneurship, propose to change the existing class ENTR 390R section 1, the Entrepreneur Lecture Series, to ENTR 375R section 1. Our purpose for this request is to create continuity in class operations and decrease student confusion when registering. Multiple ENTR 390R courses cause mass confusion for students. This course is an already approved elective course and has been taught for the last two semesters; therefore no other department or class will be affected by this change. This class is proposed to be offered both Fall and Winter Semesters, and Spring and First Term each year under the proposed “Tri-semester” plan.

ENTR 375R has been taught the past year on BYUH campus as an ENTR 390R course. All courses from the Entrepreneurship Center, including ENTR 375R, will be taught by volunteers at the University, requiring no additional resources.

This Course is supervised by the Dean of the College of Business, Computing, and Government.

If this is a new course number, what was the old number, and should the old and new courses be treated as identical for purposes of retakes and graduation requirements? ENTR 390R- Yes.

Note: New courses should be given course numbers that have not been used for three years. This rule also applies to the renumbering of courses.

Attach copies of each of the related web pages from the on-line catalog and indicate where changes should be made.
Course Outline:

Upon completion the students will be able to do the following:
  • Analyze and write up personal goals based on the lecture
  • Communicate lessons learned from lecture in fluently in writing

This is a lecture series/forum class, not a traditional professor taught class.

Brigham Young University-Hawaii educates students with the knowledge and tools they need to succeed in life after graduation. The Willes Center for International Entrepreneurship offers the Entrepreneur Lecture Series which hosts successful leaders and entrepreneurs to campus for students to engage with.

This series provides students with
  • Opportunities to learn from those who have become successful
  • Inspiration to achieve accomplishments of their own
  • Patterns of success to base future goals for their own lives
  • Witness successful leaders who balance several aspects of life including spiritual, familial, professional, and financial.
